

Acknowledgments

This whole paper is an acknowledgement; its main purpose is to show my respect and thanks to all those whom I have admired and who have taught me so much over the last four years and before. I have tried to show this by quoting as many of them as possible, often without their knowledge; I hope they forgive me.

I would like to thank them and everyone else for putting up with me as I have gathered data for this, throughout my life, and for providing me with speech on which to pun, and for listening to the results, and giving me their opinion thereof without resort to violence.

Specifically, I would like to thank:

John Harkness, that prince among men, for patience, interest, and help above and beyond the call of duty, without which this never would have gotten done or at least not by me;

Andrew Garrett, Becky Kennedy, Mark Hale, Calvert Watkins, Michael Cooperson, Robin D.S. Yates, Gregory Nagy, John Bodel, Hayden Pelliccia, Amanda Lathroum and Jeff Huyck, for suggesting and lending books and articles, and for explaining things to me which I did not understand and listening to me explain the things I thought I did;

Elli Mylonas, for huge amounts of technical assistance, and pragmatic advice (and Greg Crane and Kenny Morrell and Sara Forsdyke also)

Scott, Lara, Anne, Linda, Susan, Nick, Wendy, Shelia, Corey, Greg, Nat, Sam, Nandana, Veronica, Amanda (for the pronouns) and most of all, Sarah, for listening, encouraging, or simply having faith;

Linda, Figures on a Beach, Beeman's and Laughing Alley Bicycle Shop, for motivation;

To Anthony, Chi-Bin, and most of all, Dad, optimo patrum, for getting me interested in puns in the first place.....
